Description

Two in-situ trainings have been held with in total 13 teachers and their respective students who where 309 in total.
All of the students where from The Netherlands, as the teaching material is developed in the Dutch language. Two participants from Hungary and the United States were present.

The four lessons were presented to the teachers and students, and the students worked with the material. Their input was of great value and the necessary adjustments have been made to fit the needs of the students.
